Roger Velasquez • September 23, 2018 • Part II

- There are those in the church who do not expect God to show up like He did in the Bible. John 14:1; I Corinthians 2:4,5; II Corinthians 12:12; Hebrews 2:4; Romans 15:18,19
- He wants to manifest His presence and glory if we will believe and obey. Mark 16:20
- We are living in a time when we especially need God to show up in His manifest presence and glory.
 - The story of Naomi and Ruth. Ruth 1:1
 - There was no bread in the house of bread. (Bethlehem means, "House of bread.") Bread in the Bible is symbolic of the presence of God.
 - There is no bread in the church today.
 - Naomi and her family have something in common with the church today.
 - When there is fresh bread of God's manifest presence and glory, the hungry will come and be fed.
- We will be changed. Genesis 32:24-30

Psalms 34:8
